

Douglas S. Terpstra

Project Manager/Principal Investigator
History/Architecture

800 Freeway Drive N, Suite 101 ● Columbus, OH 43229 ● Phone: 614.268.2514, x 3556 ● dterpstra@ascgroup.net

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Mr. Terpstra is responsible for conducting all phases of the Section 106 process, including conducting literature reviews, conducting fieldwork and report preparation for reconnaissance and intensive level surveys, preparing documentation for consultation, participating in consulting party coordination, preparing memorandums of agreement, and participating in the completion of mitigation products. As principal investigator for architectural history, Mr. Terpstra reviews work of subordinate architectural historians, helps to prepare proposals, manages schedules and budgets, and participates in marketing activities.

Education

College of William and Mary,
BA History
1996

University of Vermont,
MS Historic Preservation
1999

Certifications

Architectural Historian:
Ohio (2001)
Indiana (2006)
West Virginia (2005)
Michigan (2011)
Principal Investigator
(Cultural-Historic),
Kentucky (2011)

36CFR61: Historic
Preservation,
Pennsylvania
(Principal Investigator)

36CFR61: History,
Pennsylvania (Principal Investigator)

36CFR61: Architectural
History, Pennsylvania
(Principal Investigator)

EXPERTISE

- More than 15 years of experience in the fields of architectural history and historic preservation.
- Experience as Project Manager and Principal Investigator.
- Authored or co-authored Section 106 and/or Section 110 review projects in Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia.
- Performed surveys for a wide range of project types such as transportation, federal building documentation, airport expansion, landfill expansion, cell tower evaluations, correctional institutions, pipeline corridors, dam removals, mining permit areas, and commercial development.
- Production of scoping reports, literature reviews, reconnaissance and intensive level survey reports, determination of effects reports, and mitigation documentation.
- Completion of two HABS and seven HAER-equivalent documentations
- Authoring or co-authoring nominations successfully listed in the National Register of Historic Places.

SELECTED PROJECT EXPERIENCE

- Utica Marcellus Texas Pipeline Project, Harrison, Scioto, and Tuscarawas Counties, Ohio – served as architectural history principal investigator, conducted fieldwork, and contributed to report preparation
- Improvements to US 36/East William Street, City of Delaware, Delaware County, Ohio – served as architectural history principal investigator, conducted fieldwork, served as lead report author
- Scioto Greenway Project, City of Columbus, Franklin County, Ohio – served as architectural history principal investigator, conducted fieldwork, served as lead report author, conducted consulting party coordination