

Benjamin A. Harvey

Principal Investigator-Architectural
History

CULTURAL • ENVIRONMENTAL • HAZARDOUS
EVALUATION & CONSULTING

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Mr. Harvey is the Senior Architectural Historian/Principal Investigator in Pennsylvania. He has nine years of experience in architectural history, history, and historic preservation in the Mid-Atlantic and southern United States. Mr. Harvey has employment experience with state governments as well as the private sector. He is responsible for Section 106 above ground compliance projects including historic resource survey forms, National Register eligibility evaluations, effects determinations, mitigation of adverse effects, and HABS/HAER recordation. He also completes Section 4(f) documentation for the Pennsylvania Region.

Education

Millersville University, BA
History

EXPERTISE

- Completed National Register listing of two historic districts and three individual properties.
- Completed more than 50 determinations of eligibility in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, and New Jersey.
- Completed numerous Determination of Effects reports.
- Completed identification, evaluation, effects, and Section 4(f) documentation for numerous properties for Pennsylvania's first Transportation Public-Private Partnership known as P3; a FHWA Federal Demonstration Project.
- Prepared Section 4(f) documentation for numerous Pennsylvania projects.

Certifications

Secretary of the Interior
36 CFR 61 Qualified in
History and Architectural
History

SELECTED PROJECT EXPERIENCE

- Identification, Determination of Eligibility, Determination of Effects, and Section 4(f) Evaluation for PennDOT's P3 Bridge Initiative.
- Pennsylvania Historic Resource Survey Forms for District 8-0 "Supergroup" (Seven PHRS forms), York and Adams Counties, Pennsylvania.
- Determination of Effects Report and Individual Section 4(f) Evaluation for the S.R. 0228 at Three Degree Road Intersection Improvement Project, Butler County, Pennsylvania.
- Identification, Determination of Eligibility, Determination of Effects, and Section 4(f) Evaluation for the S.R. 1009 over Chartiers Creek Bridge Replacement Project, Washington County, Pennsylvania.
- HABS Level II Recordation of Building 18, Coasters Harbor Island, Newport, Rhode Island.
- Oak Mound-Waldo Run Transmission Line (FirstEnergy) Reconnaissance and Eligibility Evaluation, Harrison and Doddridge Counties, West Virginia.
- Historic District Eligibility Evaluation for the Dingess Street Bridge Replacement Project (WVDOT), Logan County, West Virginia.
- Reconnaissance Report for the Kanawha Valley Area Transmission Reinforcement Project (American Electric Power), North and South sections, Kanawha County, West Virginia.